11. My deerest Mistrisse

My deerest Mistrisse, let vs liue and loue,
And care not what old doting fooles reprove,
Let vs not feare their sensures, nor esteeme,
What they of vs and of our loues shall deeme,
Old ages criticke and sensorious brow,
Cannot of youthfull dalliance allow,
Nor neuer could endure that wee should taste,
Of those delights which they themselues are past.
