

William Corkine

AYRES,
TO
SING AND PLAY
TO THE LVTE AND BASSE VIOLL.

1610

V. Sweete sweete let me goe.

*Sweete sweete let me goe,
What do you meane to vexe mee so,
Cease, cease, your Pleading force,
Doe you thinke thus, to extort remorse,
Now, now, no more, alas you ouer beare me,
And I would crie, but some would heare I feare mee.*