SONGES
of sundrie kindes:

1604

III. Yee bubling springes.

Ye bubling springs that gentle musick makes
To louers plaints with hart sore throbs immixt,
When as my deare this way her pleasure takes,
Tell her with teares how firme my loue is fixt:
And Philomel report my timerous feares
And eccho sound my heighoes in her eares:
But if she aske if I for loue will dye,
Tell her good faith, good faith, good faith not I.
